Why should I join?

The Youth Writers Group is a chance to connect with your creativity under the guidance of a professional writer in a small group setting. We play with fiction, poetry, graphic narrative, non-fiction, and anything you love to read. Participants build skills and confidence through a fun, practice-based writing program.

Each session includes:

- Creative writing activities and prompts
- Personalised mentoring and feedback
- The chance to share your work in a supportive environment.

See examples: poetsoutloud.org/youth

OUTCOMES:

- Learn strategies for creativity
- Build skills in drafting, editing, revision, and critique
- Increased motivation and resilience
- Achieve personal goals
- Improve understanding of language forms and features
- Valuing your unique voice and capacity
- Positive peer relationships

- Sarah Temporal is a prize-winning poet, performer, and former high school English teacher. You can find her work in Best of Australian Poems and other literary journals. She is the Director of Poets Out Loud Youth Slam and enjoys empowering people of all ages through the spoken and written word.
